

Berliner Philatelisten-Klub

125th Anniversary Celebration

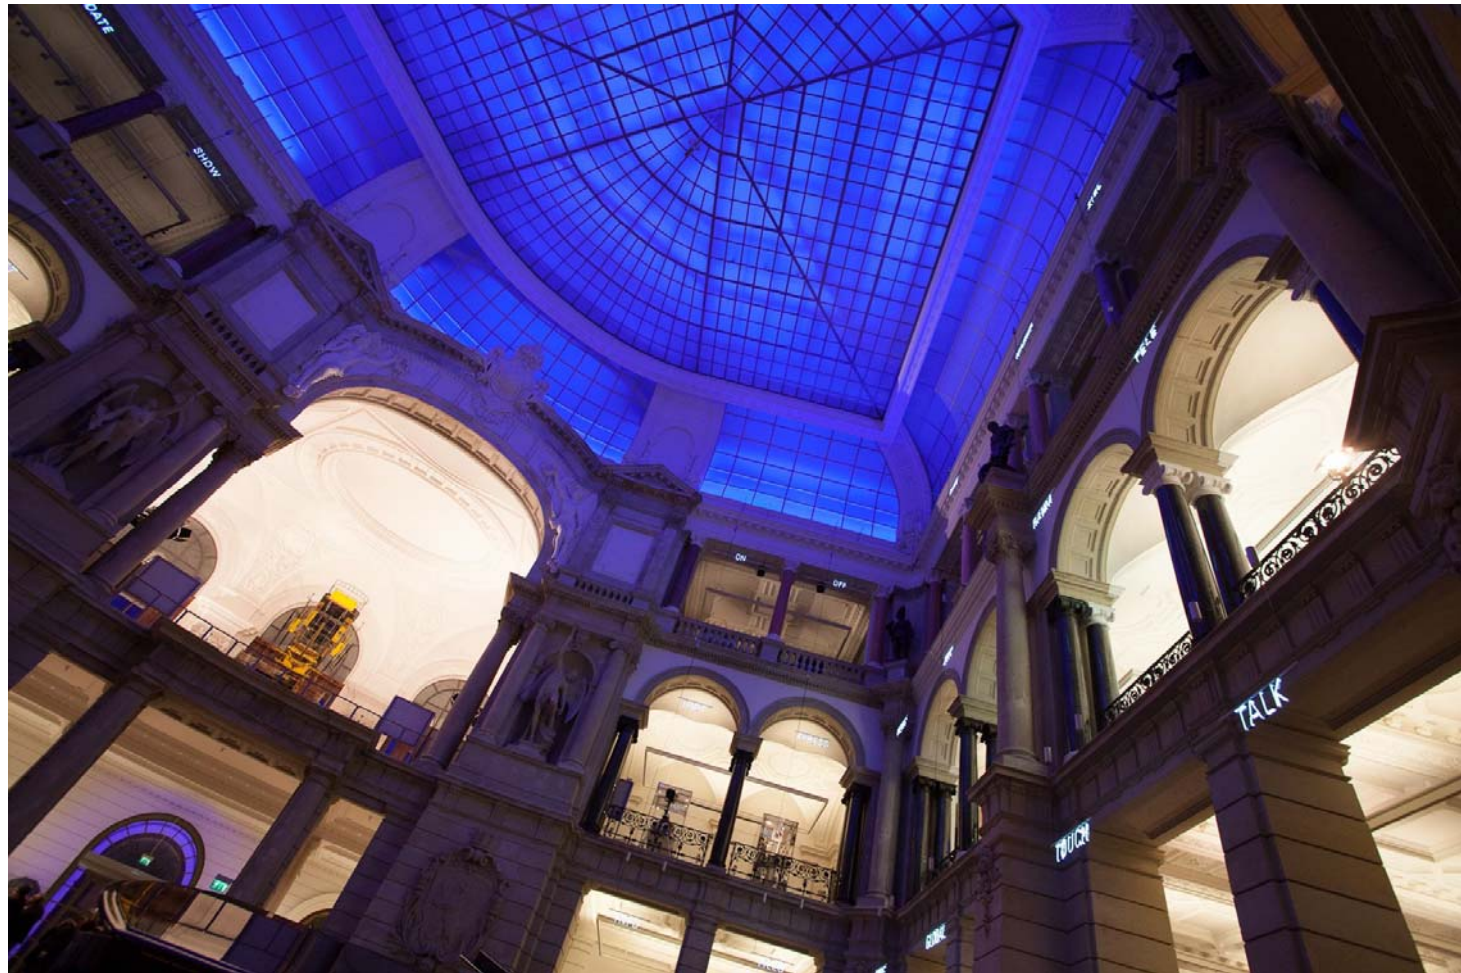

February 15 – 17, 2013

Berlin, Germany

Held at the Museum for Communication (Former Postal Museum)

Wolfgang Bauer – President & Organizer

The Symposium

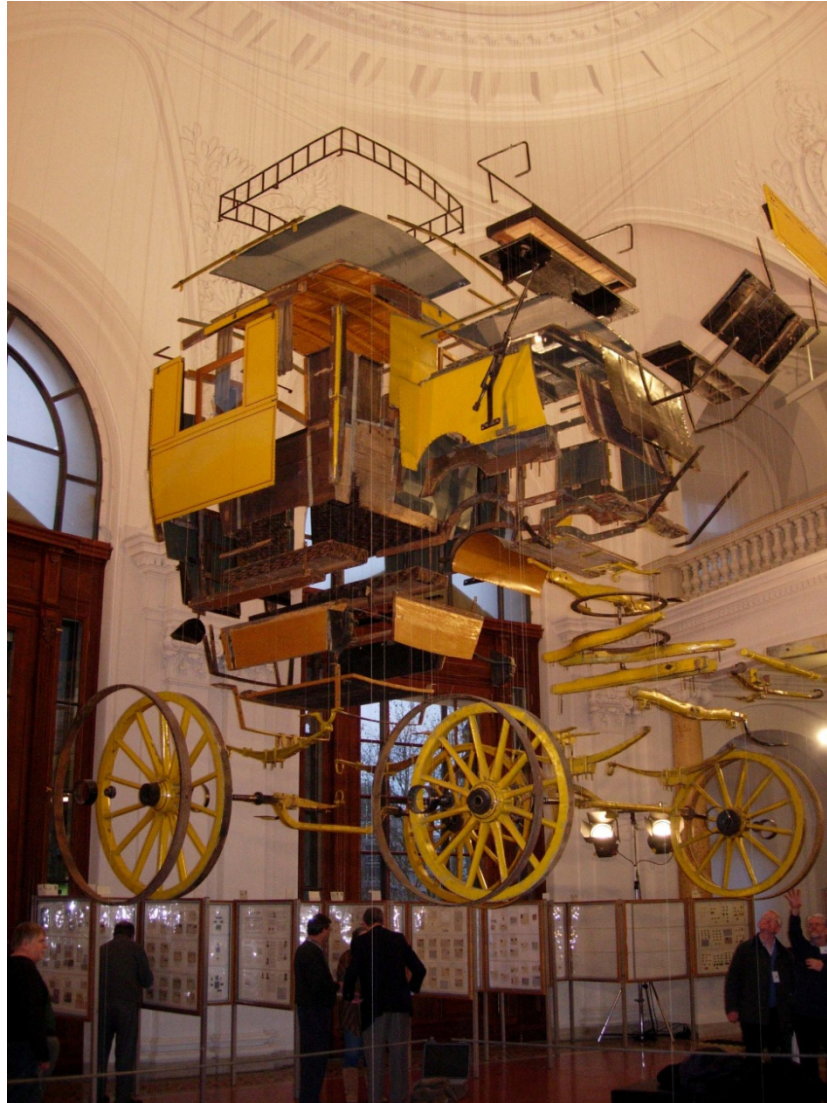

The Exhibit

Stupell Wows Them With Philately & Computers

- Keith Stupel's exhibit illustrated the marriage of philately and computers
- His entire collection was on a Windows 8 (touch screen) database available for all to see
- His framed exhibit had QA codes so you could listen to his exposition on your smart phone
- From 8 to 80 they crowded around Keith's presentation

Listening to Keith Expound on One of His Items in the Frames Using Modern Phone Technology

Even Brody Was Impressed

The Champagne Party

The Awards Ceremony

The Lindenberg Medal
For Outstanding Achievement
In Philately

Opening Remarks

Chris King for the Royal

Ed Grabowski for the Collectors Club

Ed attempts to speak in German much to Wolfgang's surprise

A Wonderful Musical Interlude

Liszt, Beethoven, Elgar, Gershwin and Chopin
Beautifully played by Nadezda Filippova

Odenweller Receives the Lindenberg Medal

Adema Receives the Lindenberg Medal

New Winners of the Lindenberg Medal with President Wolfgang Bauer (center)

Patrick Pearson & Wolfgang Maassen

Robert Odenweller & Kees Adema

U.S. Winners of the Lindenberg Medal

- Charles Lanthrop Pack - 1926
- Dr. Carrol Chase – 1932
- Tracey Woodward – 1937
- August Dietz - 1938
- John R. Boker – 1981
- Herbert Bloch – 1982
- Bernard A. Hennig – 1987
- Arthur Salm – 1988
- Robert P. Odenweller – 2013
- C. Kees Adema - 2013

The Dinner

With Special Thanks to Wolfgang, Anne and the Organizing Committee For a Job Well-Done

